

TEACHING ENGLISH IN THE DIGITAL AGE

A series of innovative and practical workshops to help teachers stimulate their classes and maintain motivation. Learn about new technologies and save on valuable preparation time!

Thursday 16th February 2012

I.T.G.S. "G. Quarenghi"
Via Europa, 27 - Bergamo

PROGRAMME

15.00 Registration of Participants

15.30 Exploiting new technologies in the classroom

Speaker: Karl Matthews - ELT Consultant

This session aims to provide teachers with a number of simple yet effective strategies for preparing lessons in the age of the Internet and will demonstrate that even in the absence of an Interactive Whiteboard it is still possible to stimulate and motivate the students of this digital generation.

16.15 Coffee Break and Book Exhibition

16.45 Ways in, ways out: before- and after-reading activities

Speaker: Robert Hill - Series Editor, Black Cat Readers

Have you ever been given a book, open at page one, and told to start reading? Probably not! This session shows how to easily create motivating before-reading activities and entertaining after-reading activities. Both paper-based and computer-based activities will be exemplified.

17.30 Let's Moodle: teach to success!

Speaker: Manuela Calzini - International Teacher Trainer

This Moodle-ized workshop is based on theoretical insights, extensive teaching and testing experience and teachers receive practical suggestions on how to exploit the principal tenets of teaching writing in the EFL classroom to good effect. The workshop also leads teachers through an ISE MOODLE journey.

18.15 End of Session / Certificates of Attendance

Ai partecipanti verrà rilasciato un attestato di partecipazione.

ESONERO MINISTERIALE CONCESSO.
